

Chartered Accountants

Trainee ACA Accountant

Job Description:

We are currently looking for an exceptional candidate to join our accounting training programme.

Our leading and sought after 3 -5 year graduate programme offers a range of benefits:

- A competitive salary
- Fully funded courses and training by leading training provider, Kaplan
- Study leave in addition to annual holiday leave
- Six monthly pay reviews
- Client facing and interaction throughout
- Partner support and exposure
- Firm wide study support “study buddies”
- Internal training and professional updates
- Additional annual leave during the Christmas period
- Regular team sports
- Community charity events
- Local business discount card & gym discounts
- And much more.

Launching your career with Burgess Hodgson gives you a well-rounded introduction to accountancy and business in general, in a challenging, rewarding, and often inspiring environment.

You'll enjoy early responsibility with a greater level of client interaction than you could expect from one of the big London firms. You'll work alongside talented professionals from a wide range of backgrounds.

We'll help you develop the technical skills you need to succeed. With a wide client base, both by sector and geography, you'll also develop the practical skills needed to operate in a thriving accountancy practice.

You'll be able to achieve your potential in a way you find satisfying. We're committed to helping you succeed professionally and personally.

Burgess Hodgson prides itself on its forward thinking business advice: could you be one of the forward thinkers of tomorrow?

Qualifications Required:

We look for applicants with a minimum of 120 UCAS points (with Maths, Business Studies and Economics disciplines preferred but not essential). For graduates, a 2:1 degree (any discipline considered) is required.
